Tune: "The Ramparts We Watch"

We take all honor's given us-
Our credits, pile them high, we wait
The steadfast thought and gain is ours
For now we graduate!

Give praise; we're the Seniors
Thirty strong we shout.
Spare tears of our parting
While we shout our victory out!
We'll miss Alma Mater
And our school day gains
Guided still by A. O.'s honor
And the road we search for fame.

Class Prophecy

December 31, 1979

Oxford University

Again last night the television cameras were really rolling when Miss Kathryn Ray, English professor at Oxford University, entertained the 1950 Senior Class of Altamahaw Ossipee School with the traditional New Years Eve party. The reunion was held in Miss Ray's newly completed home of imported stone.

As customary, Miss Ray was behind time in all her preparations; however with the help of an early arrival, Hilda Talley, interior decorator, the house was made ready in ample time. Arriving in time to give aid in her own line of work was hairdresser and chain beauty shop operator, Mrs. Louise Bell, nee Louise Simpson. As the minutes before time for the guest's arrival ticked by, Daniel Somers, T. V. operator, made a final check on his machines.

As the guests arrived they were greeted by the hostess, Miss Ray, and Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Bundy, Miss Ruth Poore, Coach and Mrs. Luther Adams, Mrs. E. C. Sanders all former teachers and Mr. Sanders who accompanied his wife to the gathering.

Greetings having been said, the alumni began grouping themselves to get news on their A. O. friend's success in life.

From the first group I learned that Therwell Wrenn, now a prosperous farmer, is married and has a nice size family. Frank Stubblefield has bought Hanford's U-Drive It and has restocked it with new cars designed by his own men. Dale Barber is now football coach at the University of North Carolina. Kay Sharpe has charge of the cheerleaders at Wake Forrest College.

Moving on to the next group, I learned that Farrell Austin is now President of Austin Hosiery Mills with Helen Barber as his private secretary.

Betty Swink is now assistant manager of the Glamour Shop while Hulon Gerringer is doing a thriving business with his newly established gaseteria, especially since he hired so many pretty girls to work for him, one of which is Herma Lowe.

As I joined another group they were discussing one of the latest movie hits "When They Laid Him Gently Away" starring Hollywood's talented Becky Mills who co-starred with the famous crooner Charlie Gold Gilliam. Norma Lane Blanchard, accompanist to Charlie, plays Becky's rival and really gives her a hard time.

Even with all of the competition brave Betsy Jones is making a final desperate attempt to get "Choo-Choo".

Speaking of trains, those who were late arrivals were Rita J. Tate, now a famous fashion designer, who flew in from Paris for the occasion, noted novelist, Sylvia Patterson, whose latest edition is How To Love, Lose, and Bear It Like A Baby: and soothsayer Alma Foster who is connected with Bill's Voices of the Future, Inc.

We hear by the grapevine that C. W. Phillips and Mary Ross are joined under his name and that C. W. is a brain surgeon at Kernodle's Clinic in Ossipee.

Iris Matkins has also followed the profession of medicine and is employed as Head Nurse at North Carolina Baptist Hospital in Winston Salem, N. C. and Sara Jo Garrison is head chemist at the B. C. manufacturing company.

If you are ever in or near Burlington and want a good meal, drop in at Aunt Betty's Cafe, owned and operated by Betty Ann Chatham. This establishment is one of the best of its kind in the south. If you don't seem to be able to locate Aunt Betty's, directions may easily be obtained from Jerrell "Pit" Boone, Sergeant on the Burlington Police Force.

Everyone expected two "Mrs. Simmons" to come from the class of 1950 and they were right. They are the former Maurline Dodson and the former Sarah Boswell, each well adapted to the duties of housewife and mother.

No one seemed to know why Vernon Zimmerman was not present, but it was later learned that the famous star in the Occoneechee Speedway at Hillsboro received a head injury while returning to his home from the races on Sunday and was still hospitalized.

The events of the evening were broadcast over radio station WINN by the joint owners and operators Vernon and Joan Winn.

Just after midnight goodbyes were said along with the wish for many more prosperous years.

The next reunion is planned for December 31, 1988, in connection with a "welcome home" party for Rev. Bobby Sutton, now a missionary serving in Lower Slobbovia.

Arlington Hopes to Shake 11-A Bi-District Play Jinx Tonight

By DAN JENKINS
Press Sports Writer

GARLAND, Nov. 25. Whether the Arlington Colts really have an exceptional football team, or whether they're like most District 11-A champs, will be decided here tonight.

When Coach Bill Sheffield's ones hook up with Coach Gordon Sellers' Garland eleven at 8 p.m., the bi-district title of Loops 12-A will be in the balance. As well as the right to advance into late Class A playoffs.

The chance to get another crack at Bowie also will be in the balance for Arlington, while a chance for sweet revenge over an 11-A opponent will be in the offering for Garland.

Regain Prestige

Tied once in district play, Garland's all-season record is marred by only one team—Handley. The Greyhounds defeated Coach Sellers' crew 14-12 earlier this year. The Colts made mincemeat of Handley, 21-0.

Garland can regain much of its prestige by winning tonight. On the other hand, Arlington establish itself as a real contender by trouncing the Colts.

When the Colts knot 13-13 at the first of the season, as considered "lucky."

Plans Complete for Playoff 1 Here Next Week

Paschal High's Panthers, football champions for the first time since 1944, make their initial bid for playoff honors Friday night, Dec. 2, at Farrington Field. Opposition will be the Sunset of Dallas.

Coach Bill Allen of the Panthers met with Sunset mentor Byron Rhome outside the dressing room after the game last night and completed plans for the bi-district clash.

Officials agreed on pending availability were: Bill Keeling, referee; E. O. (Doc) Hayes, head linesman; Ickv Connelley, field right sacreligious. Sheffield's men want another chance to prove it was no fluke upset tie.

Tonight's contest will pit two of the top Class A competitors in

Gunn led his league in scoring with 104 points in 10 games, while Valle finished second in 12-A with 101 points in nine encounters.

Arlington is outweighed around 25 pounds per man, according to Sheffield. Garland is reported to have another good boy Wright.

Wogs Again Display Class in 21-19 Win

The impression that the TCU University will receive outstanding play from this year's Wog team is pretty well confirmed on the field in College Station last night. Although they had to make a rugged last-minute stand, Coach Walter Roach's charges rang up their second straight victory, 21-19, over the Aggie Fish.

Boys like Malvin Fowler of Van, et Bobby Harding of McGregor,

The young Aggies had command of the final quarter, scoring twice. Near the close, they again threatened but drew a penalty for too much time and the Wogs kicked out of danger.

Coach Roach, who brought his youngsters home early this afternoon, said he was fairly well pleased. He used 34 men.

The Wogs have three games left with the Texas Shorthorns, Rice

Monday

It will be Arkansas five six against Kansas State at Fayetteville on Thursday night. Boh Blair of Texas and Charley Wrenn of Happy stood out for the Christians.

Fowler ran and passed for the first TD in the second, scoring from the four. The Fish then failed to score when Safetyman Dan Parker fumbled a punt on the goal line and Roy Bush recovered in the end zone.

The Wogs sacked the battle in the third when they counted twice choice over Baylor at Home. One move went 38 yards on five plays with Snow passing well and finally holding around end for 11 yards. Parker, of Port Arthur, then returned a punt 64 yards to West Virginia, North Carolina, lane, and Maryland.

Tulane can count itself in Sugar Bowl if it clinches sole session of the Southeastern conference title by trimming Tulane was a seven-point favorite but the game promised to be a bitter.

Rice, unbeaten in the South Conference, is a one-point choice over Baylor at Home. The winner gets the Cotton Bowl berth as home team and the right to express a choice of opponent.

BUR-MIL'S GREATEST INVESTMENT
IS HERE IN ALAMANCE COUNTY

Twenty-five years ago Burlington Mills began here in Burlington as a small bedspread mill. Since that humble beginning, this Company has grown during the past quarter-century until it is now one of the world's largest producers of rayon fabrics. Its operations have spread to five states and four foreign countries. The list of Bur-Mil textile products now includes women's woven and knit outerwear and underwear fabrics, men's wear fabrics, decorative fabrics, cotton piece goods, yarns, women's and men's hosiery, industrial and transportation fabrics, and ribbons.

Despite this growth and expansion, Burlington Mills is proud to point out that the Burlington area - the birthplace of the company - still embraces its largest concentration of plants, people and investment. There are 15 Bur-Mil manufacturing plants or service units in Burlington and Alamance County employing over 4,000 people with an annual payroll of over $11,000,000.

Burlington Mills is proud to be a part of the great community of Burlington. It appreciates the fine cooperation and loyal support it has received. It is equally proud of its many employees who join with other good citizens in the civic, educational and religious activities of city and county.
